

Community Corrections Collaborative Network

Progress Report
November, 2017

"The Community Corrections Collaborative Network (CCCN) will serve as the forum to develop and work the emerging issues, activities and goals of the community corrections field."

The Community Corrections Collaborative Network – EST 2012

CCCN Progress Report

Below is a timeline and list of accomplishments for the Community Corrections Collaborative Network

April 2012	Report to the Working Group, a gathering of community corrections professionals at the National Institute of Corrections in Washington, D.C.
September 2012	Network Meeting, Washington, D.C. The Charter, establishing the network as the Community Corrections Collaborative Network, or CCCN <ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ Original members include: American Probation and Parole Association (APPA), Association of Paroling Authorities International (APAI), International Community Corrections Association (ICCA), National Association of Probation Executives (NAPE), and National Association of Pretrial Services Agencies (NAPSA)
February 2013	Network Meeting, Washington, D.C.
March 2013	CCCN Web Page: http://community.nicic.gov/wikis/cccn/corrections-community-collaborative-network.aspx
March, 2013 (Original)/September 2014 (Revision)	Network Position Paper: Safe and Smart Ways to Solve America's Correctional Challenges http://community.nicic.gov/wikis/cccn/cccn-s-position-paper-safe-and-smart-ways-to-solve-america-s-correctional-challenges.aspx
September 2013	Network Meeting, Washington, D.C.
October 2013	CCCN adds the Federal Probation and Parole Officers Association (FPPOA) as full members of the CCCN

March, 2016	Network meeting March 16-17, 2016, Washington, D.C.
May, 2016	CCCN Survey Report http://nicic.gov/library/032670
Aug, 2016	CCCN Myths & Facts One-Pager and Supporting http://nicic.gov/library/032698
Sept, 2016	CCCN Fall Meeting September 22-23, 2016, including Live Webinar on Sept 23, 2016 highlighting Hawaii's Opportunity Probation with Enforcement (HOPE) Program; including program design, research on HOPE, and resources for the field. https://nicic.gov/library/032784
Oct, 2016	An Opinion Survey of the CCCN https://nicic.gov/library/032670
Jan, 2017	CCCN Workshop at APPA Winter Conference, Reno, NV
March, 2017	CCCN Spring Meeting March 29-30, 2017, Washington, D.C.
April, 2017	CCCN Myths & Facts, Series II, plus One-Pager https://nicic.gov/library/032859
Sept, 2017	CCCN Training Broadcast "Improving Public Safety Through Effective Community Reintegration Practices" https://nicic.gov/improving-public-safety-through-effective-community-reintegration-practices

For more information on the Community Corrections Collaborative Network, sponsored by the National Institute of Corrections, please contact network manager, Greg Crawford at: gcrawford@bop.gov or 202-514-4273 or find us on our network web page: <https://info.nicic.gov/cccn/>

